With 8 years of experience in front-end development, I have built content management systems for the finance and insurance sectors, as well as customized projects including e-commerce platforms and brand websites. I also contributed to the product development of an educational platform. With hands-on experience in backend API development, I approach system design with a full-stack perspective.

I am a strong communicator who easily integrates into teams, I have led a team of 5–6 developers in collaborative project delivery. Currently, I am actively expanding my skillset toward becoming a full-stack engineer.
